ADJUDICATOR

Welcome to our adjudicator Peta Markham-Ward.

With over 30 years performing, teaching and over 10 years adjudicating experience under her belt Peta Markham-Ward's passion is to create a greater awareness of the Performing Arts and the importance of fitness in our youth – predominantly in the Western Suburbs of Sydney (where she grew up) – giving students opportunities to achieve personal and industry success.

Not only is Peta the passionate owner and director of INSPIRE Dance & Fitness but her former role as a Dance / PDHPE teacher in secondary schools has lead her to one of her current roles with the CAPTIVATE Team - where she assists with the co-ordination of a variety of dance programs within the Parramatta Catholic Diocesan schools.

Peta's business, INSPIRE Dance & Fitness offers many services which she is extremely proud of:

- * Dance, Sport & Fitness Programs for Educational Schools (primary & secondary)
- * Vacation Care & Daycare Programs
- * Adjudication of talent quests, eisteddfods, scholarship days (personally & organising a team of adjudicators)
- * Youth Performance Opportunities - creating opportunities for young artists and offering guidance and mentoring
- * Entertainment - professional & semi professional event entertainment and promotional staff

Peta has trained in a variety of styles under the auspice of many great dancers, teachers and choreographers. Her main inspiration in dance was Robyn E Dixon & Ben Webster at the Johnny Young Talent School and The Australian College of Entertainment. She has taught some successful and established artists over the years including Rebecca Cartwright (Home&Away), Delta Goodrem (Recording Artist), Kathleen DeLeon (Hi5) and several independent artists along with many of her past students currently run their own successful dance studios.

Her professional dance career started in high school with securing a contract on the P&O Fairstar in the school holidays as part of their entertainment team and since then has worked with the likes of Tina Arena, Jane Scali, Dennis Walter, the late Bobby Limb and Ricky May, Paul Mercurio along with many other artists on tour around Australia and throughout Sydney. Since retiring from performing Peta has taught dance at many established dance studios and educational schools along with teaching fitness, conditioning, Zumba®, ZumbAtomic® and HOT HULA® fitness at various health clubs, gyms, schools and community halls. Peta has also had the opportunity to choreograph for several large events including World Cup Soccer, Sydney Flames Basketball, Sydney Kings Basketball, Hi-Tec Oils Girls at Sydney Motorsport Park, BraveButterfly Gala, Western Sydney Business Awards, Go Ralphy Gala, Easter Show (several years) & a pilot for HeyYa TV plus many other community and private events.

Welcome Peta Markham-Ward!
